1. What are your top priorities on the Council Strategic Work Plan and why?
2. Are there any issues where you disagree with Council direction, and what would you change?
3. How can we enhance the City's livability and quality of life for our residents?
4. How would you consider public comments from residents?
5. What criteria would you use for land use decisions?
6. What efforts that we have not already made would you take to help our existing businesses stay in Mountain View, make it easier for new businesses to enter, and reduce the number of longstanding empty storefronts?
7. Closing Statements.

At 6:29 p.m., Councilmember Ramirez returned to the dais.

The Council interviewed the following applicants:
