The Commission asked questions of staff and staff responded to the questions. The Commission discussed this item and, by majority consensus (Nunez no) supported the recommended modifications to the proposed criteria and density for upzoning R2-zoned properties - as they pertain to Rincon Street, Valencia Avenue, Creek Way, 1130-1150 Miramonte Avenue, Starr Way and 1404-1440 Miramonte Avenue.

Commissioner Dempsey recused himself from deliberations on modifications to the proposed criteria and density for upzoning R2 properties along Plaza Court and 814-844 Cuesta Drive due to the proximity of his property to these properties, which have the potential to be impacted by the Commission's decision on this item.

The Commission discussed this item and supported by unanimous consensus, the recommended modifications to the proposed criteria and density for upzoning remaining R2 properties. The Commission also recommended, by majority consensus (Yin no), that the areas between Central Expressway and Central Avenue on either side of Moffett Boulevard should also be considered for upzoning to R3-A.

The Commission discussed the remaining items, Questions 1 and 2.

For question 1, the Commission recommended, by majority consensus (Nunez no) increasing densities within the 14 change areas for the study, and only those areas. For Question 2, the Commission recommended, by unanimous consensus, using Option 2A, increasing densities to four stories/R3-D1 in areas other than Del Medio South (such as Option 1, the six-story/R3-D2 option) would be appropriate to avoid downsizing. Lastly, the Commission, by unanimous consensus, expressed support for the transition areas and to study an approach that could use density standards and/or other zoning districts to reduce the effect of density bonus waivers in these transition areas.
