

AMENDMENTS TO PAGES A-10 AND B-1 OF ADVISORY BODY HANDBOOK

Structure and Composition

The Performing Arts Committee consists of five members appointed by the City Council. All candidates for membership must have a demonstrated special interest or training in the performing arts and may not be a current or past (within 24 months) board member or employee of a user of the Center or a current office-holder ~~or employee~~ of the City. Appointments made during a two-year pilot period, beginning February 27, 2018, may include individuals employed by the City of Mountain View if there is no conflict between the duties, functions, or responsibilities of the Council advisory body position and the roles and duties of the City employment position, and provided the individual meets other advisory body eligibility requirements. The Pilot Program will terminate February 27, 2020, unless further action is taken by the City Council.

All these elements being equal, preference will be given to those residing in or employed in Mountain View. Members are eligible to serve a maximum of two consecutive four-year terms.

At the first Committee meeting each January, the Committee elects one of its members as Chairperson and another as Vice Chairperson for the upcoming year.

Responsibilities and Obligations

Provided below is a brief listing of the responsibilities and obligations of persons serving on City boards, commissions and committees.

- ~~City board, commission or committee members may not hold any paid office or be employed by the City of Mountain View. Per the City Charter, it is the policy of the City Council to appoint qualified electors (i.e., registered voters) of the City to Members of the Environmental Planning Commission, Board of Library Trustees, and Parks and Recreation Commission may not hold any paid office or be employed by the City of Mountain View as set forth in the City Charter. For all other non-Charter advisory bodies, appointments made during a two-year pilot period, beginning February 27, 2018, may include individuals employed by the City of Mountain View if there is no conflict between the duties, functions, or responsibilities of the Council advisory body position and the roles and duties of the City employment position, and provided the individual meets other advisory body eligibility requirements.~~
- All board, commission and committee members receive no compensation.
- ~~Persons serving on City boards, commissions and committees must be registered voters in Mountain View unless otherwise provided by law or City regulations. If a board, commission or committee member ceases being a registered voter within the City, their office will become vacant and subject to reappointment by the City Council. Per the City Charter, it is the policy of the City Council to appoint qualified electors (i.e., registered voters) of the City to the Environmental Planning Commission, Board of Library Trustees, and Parks and Recreation Commission. Persons serving on non-Charter advisory bodies are not required to be registered voters and may serve regardless of immigration status.~~
- If a member of a board or commission is absent without excuse from three consecutive meetings, their office will become vacant and subject to reappointment by the City Council.
- If a board, commission or committee member is convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, their office will become vacant and subject to reappointment by the City Council.
