c. In-lieu fees for fractions of units. If the calculation of BMR units results in a fraction of a unit, either an in-lieu fee shall be paid to the city's housing fund or the development shall provide an additional unit to satisfy the requirement. The in-lieu fee shall be based on a formula that considers the difference between the price of market-rate units and the price of below-market-rate units as specified in the BMR administrative guidelines.

d. Developments with nine (9) or fewer units. For residential developments with nine (9) or fewer units, the developer may elect to either pay an in-lieu fee or provide a BMR unit.

e. Alternative mitigations. As an alternative to building the affordable housing units or paying the in-lieu fee, developers of market-rate residential projects may submit a request to meet their affordable housing obligations through other means, such as the dedication of land, the provision of other resources, or other alternatives.

Such requests may be granted at the sole discretion of the city council, if the city council determines that such alternative will further affordable housing opportunities in the city to an equal or a greater extent than the affordable housing obligation.

fg. Location and design of BMR units. BMR units shall have the same access to project amenities and recreational facilities as market-rate units.

gh. Targeted households. All BMR rental units shall be rented only to qualified low-income households, and all BMR ownership units shall be sold only to qualified moderate-income households pursuant to procedures and guidelines established by the city.

hi. Term. BMR units shall be maintained as affordable housing for a period of at least fifty-five (55) years.

ij. No density bonus. Compliance with the provisions of this article does not entitle a residential development to a density bonus.
