MOTION - M/S - Lieber/Hicks - To:

Introduce an Ordinance of the City of Mountain View Amending the Mobile Home Rent Stabilization Ordinance (Chapter 46 of the Mountain View City Code) to Remove the Exemption for Mobile Home Spaces and Mobile Homes in a Mobile Home Park that Are Subject to an Approved Accord, to be read in title only, further reading waived, and set a second reading for September 13, 2022.

SUBSTITUTE MOTION - M/S - Matichak/Abe-Koga - To:

Keep the exemption in the ordinance and draft an MOU with the following terms from the MOU proposed by Sunset Estates: annual general adjustment methodology, vacancy control, park owner waiving the right to petition, pass through cost methodology, 10-year term, and safety net program. Additional terms to be added: tenants waive the right to petition, mobile home tenants can only be evicted for the specific reasons outlined in the ordinance, establish a process for addressing issues (residents work with park owner first, then proceed to mediation, and finally the City would step in on a cost-recovery basis), a passing percentage for the MOU of 80% of units that vote instead of 80% of residents, drafted by outside counsel, and verify the terms were acceptable to the Sunset Estates Mobile Home Park owner.

In response to Councilmembers Abe-Koga and Kamei, the motion maker amended the substitute motion to include voting to be administered by a third-party and funded by the park owner, replace the City's involvement on a cost-recovery basis with direction to staff to bring back to the Council any startup costs and fees required to administer the program, and direct staff to incorporate more robust outreach to mobile home residents.
