Hi Heather,

Could you please show the attached slides for me at tonight's City Council Meeting? I plan to attend in person. Thank you!

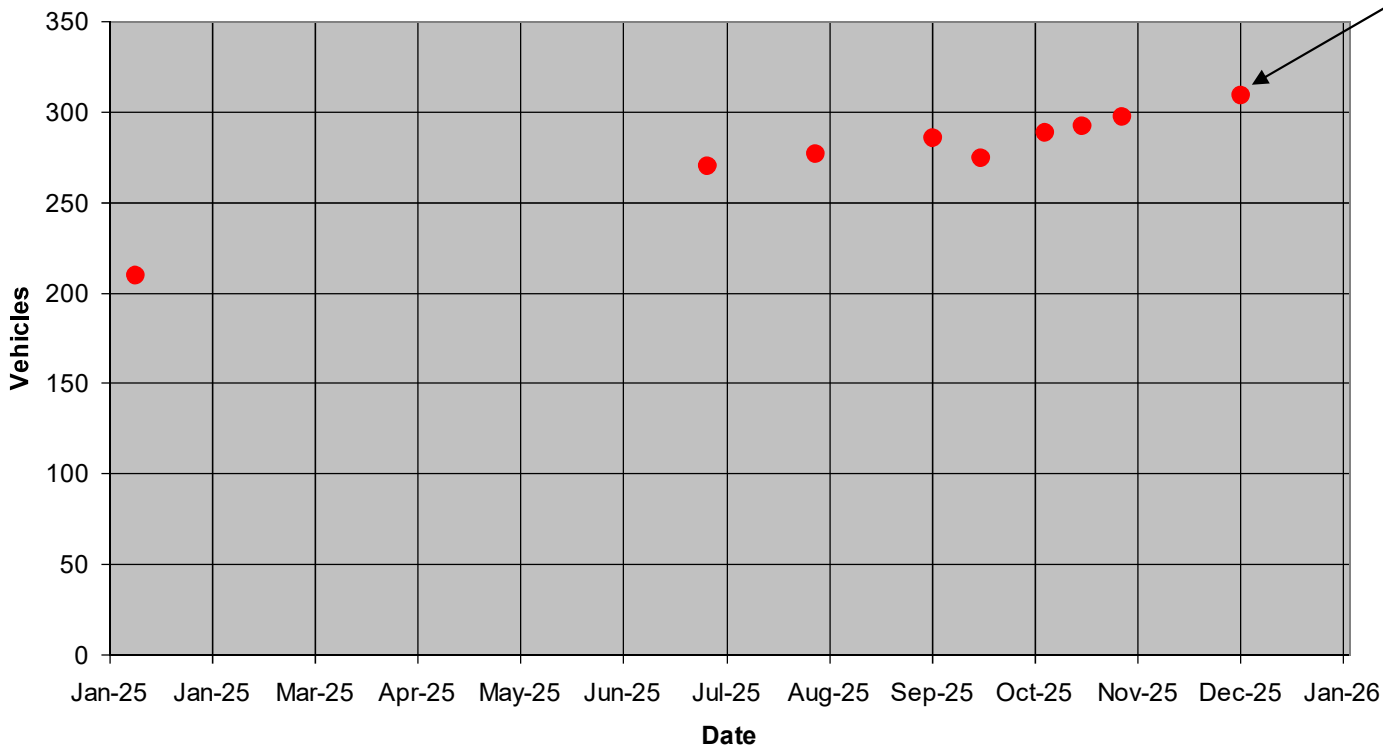

Best regards,

Abe-Koga: Trump's homeless funding cuts are a public safety crisis

 by Special to San José Spotlight

NOVEMBER 18, 2025

The evidence is clear: Housed individuals are far less likely to cycle through our jails and emergency rooms. Permanent supportive housing reduces crime like substance use, decreases emergency service calls and allows our public safety personnel to focus on critical incidents rather than managing predictable crises that come directly from an unstable condition of living on the streets.
