4. STUDY SESSION

4.1 Environmental Planning Commission Applicant Interviews

The purpose of this study session was to interview applicants for the Environmental Planning Commission vacancy and make a recommendation for adoption at the February 25, 2025 City Council meeting.

The following member of the public spoke:

Alex Brown

The Council selected the following time allocation and questions to ask each Environmental Planning Commission applicant:

1 minute: What would you bring to the Environmental Planning Commission that is unique?

2 minutes: What are your thoughts on the City's existing plans like the General Plan and Precise Plans, specifically the Downtown Precise Plan?

1.5 minutes: How would you evaluate proposals to implement the Housing Element components?

2 minutes: How does good land use improve our City, and what is good land use?

1 minute: What is the role of a Planning Commissioner?

The Council interviewed the following two applicants for one member on the Environmental Planning Commission to fill one term beginning February 25, 2025, through December 31, 2025.
